Superintendent's Report

Mr. Prusator reviewed the 2007 School Report Card. Mr. Prusator highlighted demographic, instructional and financial information. The 2007 School Report Card is posted on the district web site.

Building Principal's Report

Mr. Mandzen introduced Mrs. Audra Swenson who started an Athletes for Literacy program. Mrs. Swenson and several student athletes shared about the program; and what the program meant to them and their reading buddies at Highland. It was a very positive experience for both the student athletes and their reading buddies.

Building principal reports were available at board members' seats.

Notices and Communications

Mr. Prusator shared a letter from School Search awarding the district the 2007 Bright Star Award for Educational Excellence. Meridian was one of 80 school districts to earn the award (out of 872 districts). The award criteria was based on districts whose student academic performance ranked in the upper one third, but whose expenditure per pupil ranked in the lower one fourth.
